WEDNESDAYS • Noon Concert Series

July 7
WA Nat'l Guard Patriot Brass
Traditional Jazz

GET TICKETS

133rd Washington National Guard – Patriot Brass & General's 7 Traditional Jazz Band. The 133d Washington National Guard Band presents the patriotic, exciting, and swinging sounds of Patriot Brass & the General's 7. The band performs for Service Members and civilians alike, traveling all over the state of Washington, representing the incredible Service Men and Women of the Washington National Guard to the great people of Washington State.

July 14
Dueling Crooners
Sounds of Sinatra & more!

GET TICKETS

Chris Anderson and Joey Jewell's "Dueling Crooners" is nothing short of a swingin' time trip back to the Las Vegas Strip. Their performance is true to the incomparable phrasing and vocal texture of Frank Sinatra, Bobby Darin and Michael Buble. They evoke the swaggering spirit of Ol' Blue Eyes and Vegas in their heyday. And Wayne Ledbetter's band has the energy and excitement to keep you going all night. The show is smart, funny, and a wonderful tribute to the lost art of livin' it up.

July 21
The Eclectics
Motown to Maroon 5

GET TICKETS

This father & son team come together to put on a show that is sure to entertain, no matter your age! This Olympia dance party band was born out of a love of the old and new. Ron Sr. performs a lot of the old stuff, and Ron Jr. covers the new stuff. They mix it up a bit with Ron Sr. singing Misery, by Maroon Five and Ron Jr. singing Play That Funky Music, by Wild Cherry. They even throw in a few country tunes!
