

2018 Ethnic Celebration Cultural Resource Application

Saturday March 10, 2018, 10am - 6pm, St. Martin's University

The mission of the Ethnic Celebration is to share the cultural traditions of our various ancestries in a positive and cohesive manner. Cultural Resource groups must be a social group representing the culture of a single ethnicity. Application acceptance will be based on available space and adherence to the mission of the event. Because the Ethnic Celebration is focused on cultural traditions, proposals for presentations that are predominantly and/or overtly religious, political in nature or not promoting positive cultural connections will not be accepted.

LIVE PRESENTATIONS (held in Worthington Center)

We are looking for 30 minute live presentations to showcase different art, food, or demonstrations from different cultures. Presentations will be selected based on cultural and topical variety and we will be alternating with World Stage Performances. Below, please tell us a little about your presentation. Our presentation space will be set up with a microphone and table. If you are doing an art project and would like to bring supplies for the crowd you can, but that is not required. Food demos should bring only enough supplies for their example.
